

Internship Description

Are you ready to kickstart your career with real-world experience in Germany? Apply now for a summer internship at the d.a.i. Tübingen!

Please submit your resume to Viola Tietje at vtietje@umich.edu, who is also available for consultation regarding the application process and preparation for your time in Germany. Interviews with the d.a.i. will take place soon.

Organization Information

Organization Name: Deutsch-Amerikanisches Institut (d.a.i)

Location: Tübingen, Germany

Organization Description:

The German-American Institute Tübingen (short: d.a.i.) is a binational forum that promotes cultural exchange. The programming, targeting all residents of the administrative region Tübingen, reflects the variety of both cultures and contributes to having a better understanding of ideals and values.

Internship Description

Intern Position Title: Internship at the German-American Institute Tübingen (d.a.i.)

Number of Positions: 1-2

Intern Position Description:

As an essential team member, you will have the opportunity to learn and actively participate in all areas of a cultural and educational institution, including the event program, language program, library, intercultural projects, student advising, travel and camps program, and public relations.

Desired Skills & Interests:

- Enrolled in a degree program related to the work of the institute (e.g. German Studies, American Studies, Cultural Studies, Political Science, Education, Sociology)
 - Flexibility, Organizational Skills, Team player, Reliability, Self-Motivated
 - Interest in intercultural communication
 - Proficiency in written and oral German is required
-

Internship Logistics

Internship Dates: Between May and August 2024 (minimum of 6 weeks)

Pay or Other Compensation: Unfortunately, we cannot offer any pay.

(Students are responsible for funding their international experiences. However, you can apply for scholarships at the University of Michigan, though funding is not guaranteed).
